Hi Kayla,

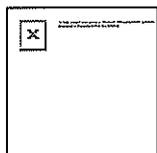

Can you please create a virtual putaway for this expired stock as this will be recharged to CLM.

Good day

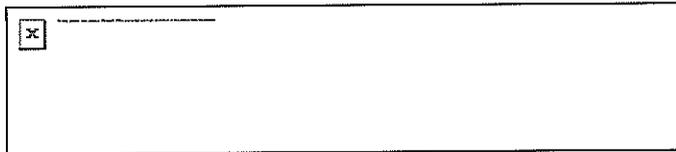

Noted but this will then go into my stock so technically you would just need to pass a credit I am not sure why I would be required to credit this as its not coming back to my depot.

That is how all my other principals work, we don't process credits if the stock is not returned to us.

Kind Regards
Kayla Crocker

Good day

Please urgently advise on this as the uplift states (Do not collect customer to decant)

Please advise as management is not wanting to send it out if that is the case, as the stock is just going to sit here and make a mess once it starts bursting

Kind Regards
